

Backstory

Carmen grew up in San Bernardino in a Mexican-American family. She started her career working as a case manager at a domestic violence shelter before transitioning to the emergency department at a local medical center where she’s worked for 8 years now. Her role is in crisis intervention, safety assessment, and connecting patients to resources.

Goals & Aspirations

Short Term

- Connect every patient to effect resources before discharge
- Improve patient outcomes through resource connections

Long Term

- Advance professionally without sacrificing family tim
- Supervise interns or teach social work courses

Hobbies & Interests

Cooking

Therapy

Journaling

Crafting

Community
Events

Travel

Carmen the Social Worker

Age: 38

Location: Redlands, CA

Marital Status: Married

Children: Daughter & Son (10 & 7)

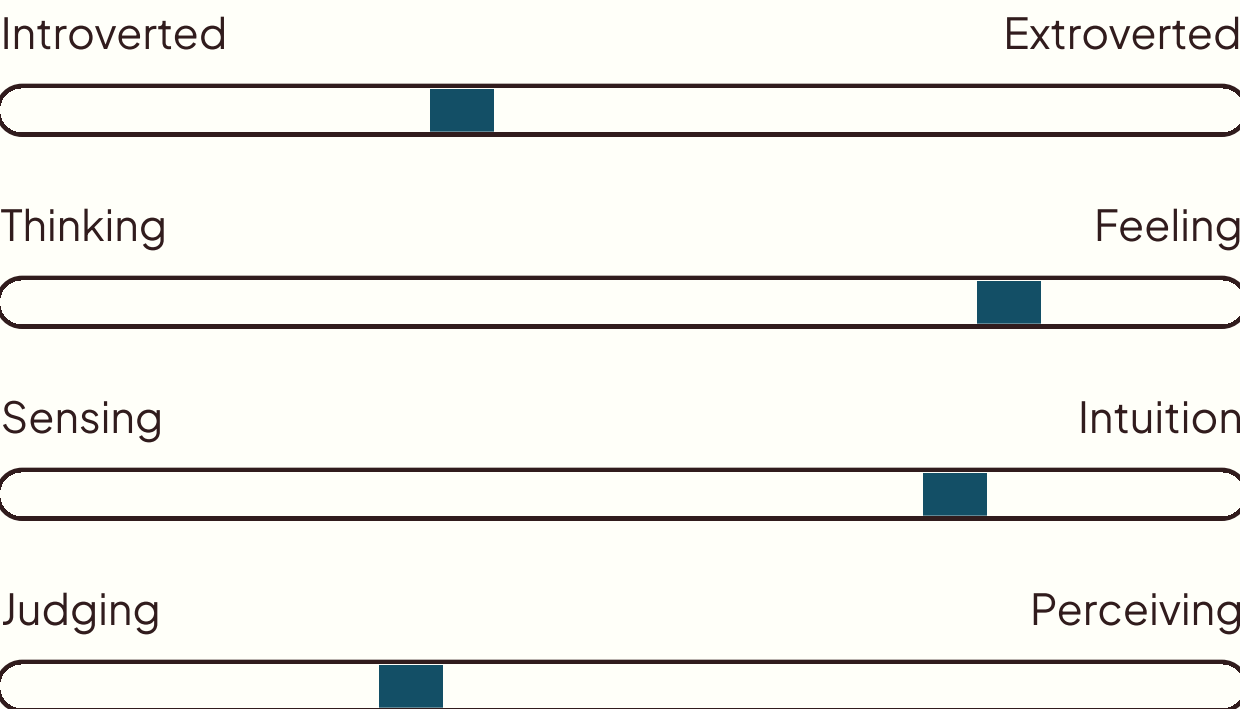

Education: Master’s of Social Work

Occupation: Emergency Social Worker

Income Level: $78,000 ($132,000 joint)

Personality – The Advocator

Empathetic Pragmatic Efficient Direct
Resourceful Professional Resilient

Pain Points

- Inconsistent responsiveness
- Waitlists and capacity issues
- Work-life boundary
- Communication gaps
- Limited hospital resources
- Burnout

Content Consumption

- Resource Guides & Eligibility Criteria
- Success Stories & Testimonials
- Training Opportunities
- Professional Updates

Facebook

Whatsapp

Instagram

LinkedIn